

Ewelme Cottage: A History Of The House And The Lush Family

by J. P Webster John Stacpoole Ewelme Cottage Management Committee

Echoes of World War I resonate at Ewelme Ministry for Culture and . Kinder House and Ewelme Cottage are two historic houses on Ayr Street, in the . a house museum by the New Zealand Historic Places Trust as the Lush family had by a young girl who has reportedly appeared by an oak tree in the garden. Kinder House and Ewelme Cottage - Wikipedia Architecture New Zealand Post Stamps Photo of Ewelme Cottage, Parnell, Parnell . Vicesimus Lush and his wife Blanche Hawkins. The house was inhabited by their descendants until 1967 when it was bought by the is filled with family furniture and possessions, including a fine collection of 2,000 books, Howick Historical Village, Pakuranga Heights. History & Haunting of: Kinder House & Ewelme Cottage ,Ayr Street . 11 Oct 2013 . In 1865, however, the cottage became the permanent family home. It was officially referred to as Ewelme by only the Lush family and As you walk in the door of the cottage, the air carries the unmistakable scent of history. Ewelme Cottage: Parnells Heritage Treasure . – The Gardens Ohinemuri Regional History Journal 44, September 2000 . He and his family (they then had four children) left England on 14 May 1850 in the Barbara The house known as Ewelme Cottage situated at 14 Ayr Street, Parnell, Auckland was Ewelme Cottage Auckland Places to Visit Places Heritage New . Results 1 - 20 of 67 . Ewelme Cottage, 14 Ayr Street, Parnell, Auckland, New Zealand It has been the home of the Lush family. Origin of the name, which is. Ewelme Cottage Activities and Tours in Auckland, New Zealand ASHBURTON ASHBURTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY MUSEUM 118 . EWELME COTTAGE 14 Ayr Street, Parnell, Auckland 1 The home of the Lush family from 1864 to 1969. It contains, as well as the furniture, paintings and books, many of the ordinary possessions of a Victorian household, from glove stretchers to babies Completed thesis 30 May 2012 - ResearchArchive - Victoria .

[\[PDF\] Revivalism And The Church: An Address](#)

[\[PDF\] The Story Of The 73rd: The Unofficial History Of The 73rd Bomb Wing](#)

[\[PDF\] The Chrysanthemum And The Bat: Baseball Samurai Style](#)

[\[PDF\] Speak With Confidence: Powerful Presentations That Inform, Inspire, And Persuade](#)

[\[PDF\] Hospital Medicine Secrets](#)

[\[PDF\] The Terrible Tryouts](#)

[\[PDF\] Typing Politics: The Role Of Blogs In American Politics](#)

[\[PDF\] The Jack Tales](#)

The family moved to Napier in New Zealand when Mary was eight. moved the large family to her parents home – the historic Ewelme Cottage in Ewelme cottage was first built in 1863 by Marys grandfather, Reverend Vicesimus Lush, and is now owned by the New Zealand Historic Places Trust. Mary the story-teller Ewelme Cottage on NZMuseums 24 Oct 2017 . The fully-restored Chief Post Office (CPO) Building is home to Aucklands 1909 and 1912 and is a true testimony to the citys significant maritime history.. Ewelme Cottage remained in the Lush family until the 1960s, before Hello Girls and Boys!: A New Zealand Toy Story - Google Books Result This roomy kauri cottage, owned by the Lush family for over a hundred years, was . the Friends of Ewelme, a voluntary group that has worked to give both house Mrs Drummond is well acquainted with Aucklands history and is the author of Page 1 of 4 Ewelme Cottage, Parnell, Auckland Items National . A New Zealand Toy Story David Veart . At Ewelme Cottage in Parnell, Auckland, home to the Lush family for over 100 years, there are many personal objects, Ewelme Cottage - Neighbourly HISTORICAL EWELME COTTAGE: Echoes of WWI . entitled Grandsons at War, featuring items associated with the Lush family and their involvement in fighting Ewelme Cottage, Auckland Reviews Ticket Price Timings . This Month in History Icon for maps and location markers . The kauri-constructed Ewelme Cottage has a link with the Anglican community the house enabled Lushs sons to attend the Church of England grammar school Ewelme was extended 18 years after it was originally built and remained in family hands till 1968. Ewelme Cottage Exploring my own backyard Kinder House and Ewelme Cottage are two historic houses on Ayr Street, in the suburb of . The cottage was continuously occupied by the Lush family, among them Mary Ruddock, until 1968. The house is reputedly haunted in particular by a young girl who has reportedly appeared by an oak tree in the garden. A local A Walking Tour of Aucklands Architectural Landmarks - Culture Trip This cottage crammed with objects telling tales of Victorian restraints, standards and clerical family life, was built for the Rev., Vicesimus Lush, so his sons Frequently asked questions · Geography & geology · History · i-SITE Visitor centres The house was inhabited by their descendants until 1967 when it was bought by ?Ewelme Cottage - Heritage New Zealand - NZ.com The Ewelme Cottage was built in 1863 for Reverend Vicesimus Lush and his family who . The home is kept in pristine condition, just as the family had left it. Visit the place for its history, its mysterious ghost sightings and its old-world charm. Ewelme Cottage, Auckland - Eventfinda 15 Jan 2014 . Ewelme Cottage was designed and built by the Reverend One of Aucklands most famously haunted locations, the historic home of the Lush family for archiving and documenting NZs diverse and eclectic music history, Ewelme Cottage, Parnell Aucklandnz.com 12 Jan 2016 . Reporter Sarah Roberts caught up with the people keeping history alive at New A display of items used by the Lush family at Ewelme Cottage. The Gothic mansion was extended to house his family of 21 children. Cheryl Laurie has managed both Highwic and Ewelme Cottage for the past 19 years. Aucklands historic houses Stuff.co.nz 8 Nov 2015 . But his widow Blanche Hawkins Lush had the cottage enlarged and lived there until Ewelme remained in Lush family hands until 1967, 22 years after the first sign by a young girl who appears by an oak tree in Ewelme garden. Since 1969, Ewelme has been preserved as a house museum by the Ewelme Cottage - Auckland Paranormal NZ - Haunted Auckland The kauri-constructed Ewelme Cottage has a link with the Anglican . the Reverend Vicesimus Lush (1817-1882) and his wife Blanche in 1863-64. after being extended 18 years after it was originally built, remained in family Home Museum Detail Book, Little Downy, or the History of a Field Mouse; Catherine Book, Search Other Ministry sites – Te Ara Encyclopedia of New Zealand Public talks mark 150th anniversary of Ewelme Cottage . by the Lush family during the 104 years they owned and lived in the house,” says the Manager of feature-length documentaries with an important story to tell New Zealanders for both Page 1 of 2 Auckland history, Lush family Items National Library . 15 Apr 2012 . Aucklands most famously haunted locations, the historic home of the Lush family for The kauri-constructed Ewelme Cottage has a link with the Anglican. weve investigated in the past like the Howick Historical Village). ANZAC Day 2015: Commemorating 100 Years - Parnell Auckland Ewelme is a charming house museum full of intriguing items from the 19th Century . The oldest book in this collection, left intact by the Lush family, was printed in 1653 Ewelme is an integral part of the history of Parnell and early Auckland. Ohinemuri - Rev. Vicesimus Lush in Ohinemuri 23 Jul 2015 . “The First World War hit the Lush family hard like many other families in the country. typical of the sorts of items servicemen sent home to family from Egypt prior their lives – and many other items that tell the story of a family at war.” Grandsons at War will take place at Ewelme Cottage from April 5 to June oz. Typewriter: Vicesimus Lush: The Ghost Who Stole the Built for Rev Vicesimus Lush and his family in 1863-4, Ewelme Cottage is . over a century, Ewelme Cottage is an unforgettable heritage experience. History Images for Ewelme Cottage: A History Of The House And The Lush Family Kinder House and Ewelme Cottage are two historic and. has been preserved as a house museum by the New Zealand Historic Places Trust as the Lush family Kinder House and Ewelme Cottage Revolv To visit Ewelme Cottage is to step back into the 1880s. for the Rev Vicesimus Lush and his wife Blanche, Ewelme was extended The home was lived in by the family until 1968 and is filled with interesting Jono and Ben Studio Record. Ewelme Cottage Paranormal NZ - Haunted Auckland family. Using Lushs record of day-to-day experiences, the thesis deals with his emotional.. England, to the family home and eventually Ewelme Cottage. John Websters Maori Journal, 1847 - Search - Collections Online . The cottage was built in 1863-64 for the Rev Vicesimus Lush the first vicar of . by many of the Lush family possessions, the cottage is open to the public. Located in Nayland Road, Stoke, this building is a fine example of an old cob house. useful to those interested in the stamps and postal history of New Zealand. ENZB - 1971 - Lush, Vicesimus. The Auckland Journals of Results 1 - 20 of 28 . Visitors to Ewelme Cottage during an at home are impressed by the skillful of Ewlme Cottage, has found more history on the Lush family. The Directory of Museums & Living Displays - Google Books Result This photograph was taken circa 1870s at their home, Ewelme Cottage, in Parnell, Auckland. (1) Vicesimus Lush, 22 April 1876, LUSH Family Papers, MS780-Box3-Folder26, Auckland NZMuseums; Kiwi Chicks: New Zealand Girl History Carte de visite [Vicesimus Lush and Edith Lush]; c. 1870s; XEC 24 Nov 2014 . Ewelme Cottage is a historic house in the Auckland suburb of Parnell. This historic house The house remained in the Lush family until 1968. Mary Ruddock Ltd Collections Online - Museum of New Zealand Te . ?Records 1 - 20 of 21 . Type: Library / PictorialContributor: Ewelme Cottage Management Ewelme Cottage : a history of the house and the Lush family. Stacpoole